

Prayers for Lent to Focus on Grace and Mercy this Lenten Season

Prayer for Strength and Guidance:

Lord God Almighty, we pray for your great mercy, that you guide us towards you, for we cannot find our way. Guide us to do your will, to the need of our soul, for we cannot do it ourselves. Strengthen us against the temptations of the devil, and shield us against our foes, seen and unseen. Amen

Prayer to Protect Us from any Temptation:

O Christ, Son of God, protect us so that we may not be led astray by any temptation. Nourish our souls with the heavenly food of your Word, through your mercy, O our God, you govern all things. Amen

Prayer for God to Bring Beauty from Ashes:

Lord, Lent reminds us of our difficulties and struggles. Sometimes the way has seemed too dark. We feel our lives have been marked by grief and pain, we don't see anything changing. In the midst of our weakness, we ask that you would be strong on our behalf. Let your Spirit shine out every broken place we've walked through. Let others recognize that it is You who is at work on our behalf. We ask that you trade the ashes of our lives for the beauty of your Presence. We believe that this is the season of darkness will fade away. We thank you that you are at work right now, trading our ashes for greater beauty. Amen

Prayer for a Clean Heart:

Oh God, create in me a clean heart, a humble heart, a peaceful heart, a benevolent heart, a devout heart which does evil to no one, which does not repay evil for evil, but overcomes evil with good, which loves you above all things. Amen

Prayer to Defend Us from All Enemies:

Lord, defend us from all enemies that rise up against us. Through your Son who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Our Guiding Principles #1

We proclaim Jesus as our Lord and Savior.

PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH

Almighty God,

My parish family is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.

Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work.

It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver.

It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish family of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a parish with a noble spirit, if I, who make it what it is, and filled with these same qualities.

Therefore, with the help of God-

I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish family to be.

Bless my journey Lord God, that I might build the Church through Jesus Christ our Lord.

AMEN

From Pastor Michele Kaufman

I came across a list entitled, "Satan's Beatitudes." They said if the devil were to write his Beatitudes they would probably go something like this: Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, too distracted to spend an hour once a week with their fellow Christians—they are my best workers. Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked, and expect to be thanked—I can use them.

Blessed are the touchy. With a bit of luck they may stop going to church— they are my missionaries.

Blessed are the troublemakers—they shall be called my children.

Blessed are the complainers—I'm all ears to them.

Blessed are they who are bored with the minister's mannerisms and mistakes—for they get nothing out of his sermons.

Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own church—for he is part of the problem instead of the solution.

Blessed are they who gossip—for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.

Blessed are they who are easily offended—for they will soon get angry and quit.

Blessed are they who do not give their offering to carry on God's work—for they are my helpers.

Blessed is he who professes to love God, but hates his brother and sister—for he shall be with me forever.

Blessed are you when you hear this and think it is about other people and not yourself—I've got you.

As I read thru that list, two things immediately struck me. I can honestly say I have pastored every one of those church members and what the church desperately needs are more members who simply love their church: not only love their church, but love their church the way God loves the church. You see, God loves the church sacrificially. He gave His Son for it. God loves the church unconditionally. There is a blessing that comes to every church member who really will loves their church. Do you love God's church? So many people only come to church three times in their life— when they're first born and baptized; when they get married and they come to church to have the wedding; and when they die and come to church to have their funeral. In other words, they come to church three times—when they're hatched, matched, and dispatched. The first time you throw water on them, the second time you throw rice, and the third time you throw dirt. I never cease to be amazed at the excuses that people give for not attending church. Someday I'm going to catalogue them and write a book. There are some people who neglect their church by not coming. They just don't show up. They want the benefits of membership at no cost. Even though we miss them, they really don't miss us. Then there are those who come but stop there. The only thing they do contribute to the church is their presence. They don't give, they don't work, they don't serve, they don't witness, they don't worship, some of them don't even sing; they just come. Then there are those who come to church and yet are so negative, so critical, their attitude is so bad that the church would be better off if they maybe stayed home. I believe if you're going to attend your church, you ought to defend your church; you ought to commend your church. That does not mean the church is not above good solid constructive criticism, but one should fully be aware of what's happened, been done or in the works. If you're not there, how can you share your insight? Do you love your church? Don't answer too quickly. Because I want to say to you gently, lovingly, but firmly; you have no right to say you love God's church, if you're not giving to it and supporting it financially. You can give without loving, but you cannot love without giving. No matter what you do, whether it is giving a tithe and an offering, teaching Sunday School, inviting folks to attend, or sitting in a pew on Sunday morning; do it because you love Jesus. I want to encourage you to be more diligent in terms of worship. I want you to pray and ask yourself how you might participate and support the work of the church. I encourage you to contemplate how we may find new ways to touch our community and address the needs of folks around us. Most importantly, we want you to be part of something that has a lasting effect on others as well as yourself.

Lenten Series

Can you imagine anyone living without at least one modern convenience in this world of ours; running water, a bed, or a clock? To many, this would be horrible. But no one takes the time to think about what life would be without God. It was Friedrich Nietzsche, in The Gay Science (1882), who had his character the madman declare, "God is dead." The point Nietzsche seemed to be making toward the end of the 19th century was that the Christian idea of God was dead, giving birth to secular humanism. This really was not a new philosophy; it was as old as the Tower of Babel. The cultural forces at work in the Western world at this time seemed to be leading people to a similar conclusion. Our culture, along with Western Europe, has become increasingly secular. It is once again popular to declare like the psalmist, "There is no God." And yet because God exists we always have hope no matter how dark the days seem. A world without God is a world without hope. The atheist (or "the fool", as the Bible calls him) says, "Prove God exists." I answer, "Prove that He does not." Either way, it is a choice of faith. I choose hope over hopelessness. What kind of a world do you choose to live in?

Join us for this year's Lenten series, A World Without God. Beginning on Ash Wednesday, February 22nd and every Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. throughout Lent, we will consider What if...??? and the consequences of a world devoid of God. St. Paul's is located at 316 S. Mountain Blvd in Mountaintop. You are invited to join us each week. The church is handicapped-accessible and ventilated by an air filtration system.

2023 Lenten Study Guides

The 2023 Lenten Study Guides are available in the St. Stephen's Room for personal reflection of the Lenten season. Please only take one per family. If you know of members who cannot make it to church or if you would like to share with your neighbors and friends, please take one for them as well.

All of the study guides are in large print.

Sunday School Resumes

Sunday School is starting again for the month of March and will continue until May 21, 2023. Right now, classes are being covered by volunteers on a month-to-month basis. It is so important for the children to have a strong foundation in their faith and that begins with Sunday School. We look forward to the children coming back to class. Over the next few months, we encourage you to prayerfully consider sharing your time and talents with our youth. We are still in need of a Sunday School leader. Team up with someone if you aren't comfortable doing it alone. Any help would be greatly appreciated. It isn't necessary to figure out lesson plans. We have an easy curriculum available to use and explore together. Weekly, monthly, or a permanent volunteer would be a blessing. Will you answer that calling? Our SS group is small in numbers but not small in the need to continue growing through instruction and fun. We are open to any suggestions on how to make this happen. If you feel you can help us in this matter, please reach out to the Learning Ministry team. Kim Deliman (chairperson), Jennifer Cipriani, Donna Cassarella, Melody Hinderer, Patty Phile
